Implementation Plan for the 2050 Strategy for the Blue Pacific Continent

Consultation Presentation

PACIFIC ISLANDS FORUM

Context and Background

At their 2019 meeting in Tuvalu, Forum Leaders endorsed the development of the 2050 Strategy for the Blue Pacific Continent.

Leaders highlighted their concerns regarding our enduring and long-term challenges such as climate change, and the impact of these challenges on our existing vulnerabilities.

Leaders reinforced their commitment to work together as a collective, and they endorsed the development of the 2050 Strategy, to set out the region's long term strategic direction for to secure its long-term future

PACIFIC ISLANDS FORUM

FEATURES OF THE 2050 STRATEGY

Climate Change and Disasters

All Pacific Peoples remain resilient to the impacts of climate change and disasters and are able to lead safe, secure and prosperous lives. The region continues to play a leadership role in global climate action.

People Centered Development

All Pacific Peoples continue to draw deep cultural and spiritual attachment to their land and the ocean, and all are assured safety, security, gender equality and access to education, health, sport and other services so that no one is left behind.

Ocean and Environment

All Pacific people live in a sustainably managed Blue Pacific Continent, while steadfastly maintaining resilience to threats to its environment.

Peace and Security

A peaceful, safe, and secure Blue Pacific region which respects national sovereignty, and where people can realise their full potentials as individuals, communities and nations, and where the region delivers Pacific-coordinated responses to security challenges and contributes to building global peace and security.

Technology and Connectivity

All Pacific Peoples benefit from access to affordable, safe and reliable land, air and sea transport and ICT infrastructure, systems and operations, while ensuring culturally sensitive user-protection and cyber security.

As Pacific Leaders, our vision is for a resilient Pacific Region of peace, harmony, security, social inclusion and prosperity, that ensures all Pacific peoples can lead free, healthy and productive lives
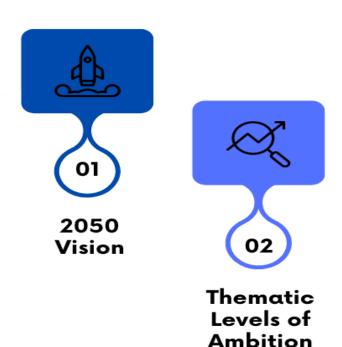

Resource and Economic Development

All Pacific peoples benefit from a sustainable and resilient model of economic development, including enabling public policy and a vibrant private sector and others, that brings improved socio-economic wellbeing by ensuring access to employment, entrepreneurship, trade and investment in the region.
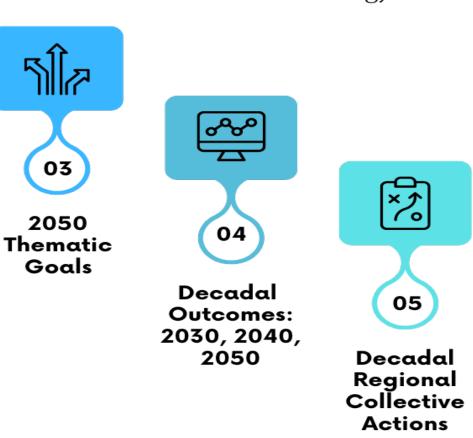

Political Leadership and Regionalism

All Pacific Peoples will benefit for our Forum Leaders working together to safeguard, secure and progress the Blue Pacific Continent, achieving regional priorities through a united and cohesive political leadership supported by the Pacific Islands Forum and a responsive regional architecture that aligns to the region's priorities and values. Partners recognise and respect our collective approach as the Blue Pacific Continent.
