Logistic and administrative arrangements

Tickets

The ESCAP secretariat will book the air tickets of funded participants through its travel agent. The cost of any deviation from the approved itinerary will be borne by the participant. Self-funded participants should make their own flight arrangements.

Accommodation

For information about hotel accommodation options, please refer to the Travel Guide.
Participants should directly settle with the respective hotels for all expenses. Participants are also responsible for any charges incurred with respect to rooms remaining vacant owing to late arrival or rescheduled departure for which inadequate prior notice is given according to the respective hotels’ policies.

Daily Subsistence Allowance (DSA)

For funded participants, the secretariat will disburse your DSA on 30 January 2024. Please prepare to submit your original boarding pass/es. For the return boarding pass/es, please scan and send to Ms. Patricia (budiyanto@un.org) as soon as you complete your trip.

Transportation

All participants should make their own transportation arrangements from and to the airport(s) in Chiang Rai, Thailand. Metered taxis are available at the exit gate of the airport. Payment could be made before or after the ride in local currencies.

Since there is no transportation provided, participants are expected to make their own booking arrangements directly to the Hotel for the transportation arrangements to/from Mae Fah Luang University daily or contact van rental recommended in the Travel Guide.

Weather

The temperature in Chiang Rai, Thailand in January is between 19°C and 33°C.
