Regional Consultation on Accountability for the Post-2015 Development Agenda

Note by the secretariat

Summary

The Asia-Pacific Regional Consultation on Accountability for the Post-2015 Development Agenda was organized by the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific in Bangkok on 5 and 6 August 2014.

The Consultation had approximately 150 participants, including experts and representatives of Governments, major groups and other stakeholder organizations and entities within the United Nations system.

In the four sessions held during the Consultation, the following issues were discussed: (a) national leadership on accountability for the post-2015 development agenda; (b) regional platforms for accountability - role and functions for Asia and the Pacific; (c) accountability and a renewed global partnership; and (d) innovations and partnerships for “the future we want” - the role of the private sector.
