

Regional Training Workshop on Transition to Register-based Approaches for Population and Housing Censuses Evaluation

Ankara, Türkiye

12-15 June 2023

34 Participants from
12 countries

26% Female

74% Male

27 National Statistics Office

4 Administrative Data Holders

3 International Organization

Respondents' Evaluation of the Workshop

1. The training was tailored to my specific needs, and the knowledge gained was useful in my present work.	4.7
2. The training was appropriate for my level of understanding.	4.7
3. The training content and methodology effectively enhanced my knowledge and skills.	4.6
4. The resource persons demonstrated mastery of their respective topics.	4.8
5. The facilitators effectively engaged participants in activities and discussions.	4.8
6. Sufficient time was allocated for discussion.	4.8
7. I am satisfied with the administrative and logistical arrangement of the training.	4.8
8. The training was delivered in a timely manner and according to plan.	4.7
9. The duration of the training was appropriate.	4.7

Average response out of 5

*88% of the participants responded to the survey

Overall, workshop participants were highly satisfied.

Participants' Recommendations:

- Increased frequency of this type of training
- Further focus on countries' experience sharing
- Additional language support