SURVEY DESIGN: ARE WE ASKING WHAT WE THINK WE’RE ASKING?

14 March 2022 | 14:00 - 15:15 hrs (Bangkok time, GMT+7, verify your time here)

Agenda

- Welcome remarks, Rachael Beaven, Statistics Division, ESCAP
- Using qualitative testing for better gender data, Jessica Gardner and Samantha Watson, ILO Department of Statistics
- What were they thinking? Using cognitive interviews to test if questions work, Richard Ssewakiryanga, Centre for Basic Research (CBR), Uganda
- “What people do, what people say they do”: Bridging the divide with REA, Neetha N., Centre for Women’s Development Studies (CWDS), India
- Experience of INEI, the Peru National Statistics Office: Lessons learned from cognitive interviewing (pre-recorded video)
- Q&A and discussion
- Conclusion and wrap-up, Peter Buwembo, ILO Decent Work Team for South Asia

Welcome by

Rachael Beaven
Director
Statistics Division
ESCAP

Moderator

Afsaneh Yazdani
Statistician
Statistics Division
ESCAP

Speakers

Jessica Gardner
Labour Statistician
ILO

Samantha Watson
Labour Statistician
ILO

Richard S.
Senior Research Fellow and Adviser
Centre for Basic Research (CBR)

Neetha N.
Professor
Centre for Women’s Development Studies (CWDS)

Peter Buwembo
Specialist Labour Statistician
ILO Decent Work Team for South Asia