

Country Statement – Iran
Agenda item 3(b)

First of all I should appreciate distinguished delegates they gave their informative speech, just now, today.

On behalf of the Statistical Centre of Iran, I would like to support this Item Agenda and also notice we plan to conduct our next census in the register bases system and so we welcome any initiatives or contribution to convert our statistical producing system to use new data sources such as administrative data and big data.