

Papua New Guinea

Gender Statistics:

The government of PNG support this very important indicator as it reflects clearly the country's 8 point plan in terms of equal gender participation. The PNG government now recognizes the Office now full funded by the government to address issues pertaining to the issues of woman and the development goais of the country. The statistical indicators on this have help setting the flatfom for the women.